How to Look Amazing, and Where to Go When You Do.

11/7/14
"Net-a-Sporter – another sign that I should tear myself away from Orange Is The New Black. Can't wait to snap up WearGrace, a yoga-inspired range by the amazing Karen Joyce."

WEARGRACE
Karen Joyce's story, much like Berkley is one of burn-out that lead to a life-altering change. The former director of image at the Gucci Group lived for her work. But slipping a disc in her back, separating from her husband and her father passing away, forced her reconsider her choices and her priorities. She discovered yoga and since has created a brand dedicated to the practice. Her collections fuse eastern-style dress with technical know-how and each piece carries the Tibetan prayer flag.
